Conversation with Lesley and Tammy Williams

Lesley Williams, a respected Murri elder, is best known for instigating the domestic and international Justice for Aboriginal Workers campaign. In 2002, this campaign resulted in the Queensland Government delivering an historic reparation package.

Tammy Williams, Lesley's daughter, was admitted as a barrister in 2002. She has been a member of the National Human Rights Consultative Committee and in 2003 was named the Queensland Womens Lawyers Association Emergent Lawyer of the Year.

Lesley's book, co-written with Tammy - Not Just Black and White: a conversation between a mother and a daughter, was awarded the 2016 Queensland Premier's Award for a Work of State Significance.
The book will be available to purchase and for signing on the evening ($32)

Registration: Early birds by Wednesday 26th July $30, by Wednesday 2nd August - $40, low income - $20 (includes supper and non-alcoholic drinks, wine to purchase or BYO)

RSVP to Maria at TheSCENE@email.com with your name, organisation, role, dietary preferences and contact details.
